

STUDYING ABROAD IN ENGLISH JAROSŁAW SKOWRONSKI COURSE AND UNIVERSITY GUIDANCE COUNSELLOR at XIII LO

If you are thinking of studying at university in the UK, the USA or any other English-speaking country and find choosing the right course, the right university and the right country daunting and overwhelming, or you are about to start the admission process, our UCAS and Oxford trained Guidance Counsellor and Cambridge Assessment Admissions Testing Officer Mr. Jaroslaw Skowronski is here to offer information, advice and help in order to guide you through the lengthy and sometimes very confusing admission process.

At the core of this service for our students lies an individually customized guidance for each of the interested Liceum students from Year 1 to Year 3. Information and help can be obtained in person via individual interviews, talks and presentations; via email and through meetings with our graduates currently studying in the UK or the USA or representatives of universities and institutions.

In the admission process itself, our guidance counsellor works closely with Year 3 Liceum students to help them prepare the strongest possible university applications. Students receive advice and assistance on how to fill in and navigate on-line application forms, make application deadlines, register and prepare for admissions tests and interviews, write winning personal statements, procure effective references from the right teachers and how to prepare, collate and certify any other supporting documents

Students also receive all necessary support and guidance (Extra/Clearing/new choices, sending Matura Results etc.) from the moment they receive an offer until they are accepted by their universities.

UCAS CENTRE at XIII LO

XIII LO in Szczecin is a registered UCAS Centre for our Liceum students who are applying to British Universities.
